

Liminality

A symposium on the theme of liminality for arts professionals, postgraduate students, academics and researchers

8th November 2013, 2.00 -6.00pm

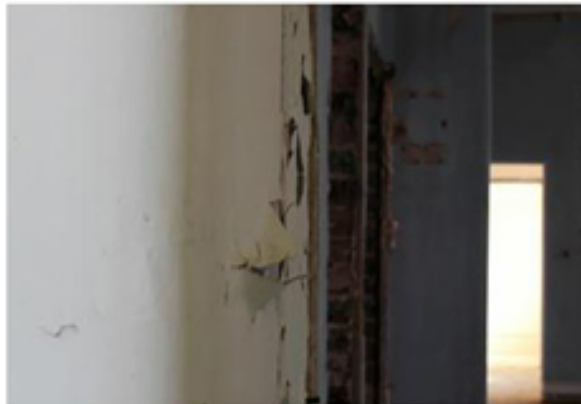

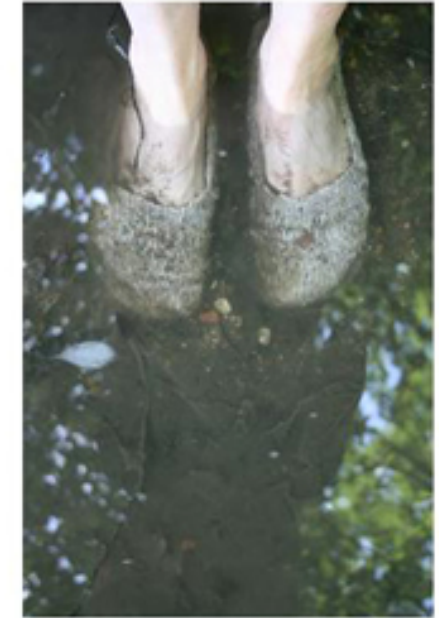

Panel:

Prof. Maurice Owen, Southampton Solent University

Prof. Charlie Hooker, University of Brighton

Dr Catherine Baker, Norwich University of the Arts

Artist Matthew Burrows

Plus exhibiting artists

The symposium accompanies the exhibition Liminal at the Otter Gallery, University of Chichester
5th October - 17th November, 2013

The exhibition presents the latest in a series of research led investigations focussed on visual aspects of actual and virtual space and takes as it's point of reference the notion of 'liminal space (from the latin Līmen, meaning 'a threshold')
The idea indicates an 'in between-ness' relating to, or being an intermediate state, phase or a transitional condition.

The exhibition and symposium follow 'Entrance to a Lane' (2011) and 'The Margins of the Lane' (2012) and continue the development of art work focussing on the complexity of peripheral spaces.